

experience equity and inclusion

Diversity, equity and inclusion in organisations: A checklist for job candidates

| Organisation:   |                      |   | Date:                   |   |  |  |
|---|----------------------|---|-------------------------|---|--|--|
| Company Culture   | Score(out of 10) | Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Programme   | The Ap                  | oplication Process  |  |  |
| The company values statement demonstrates they place value in diversity, equity and inclusion |                      | There are established employee networks/groups, e.g. forWomen, LGBTQ+, Race at Work, and more                       | asked ab                | ess is accessible: it's properly explained, you areout accommodations you may need, you can self-   |  |  |
| I can see myself thriving in this company culture   |                      | Info is shared on the website about their DEI facts and figures and their DEI commitment                                | identify oSalary ra | correctlynge is shared  |  |  |
| Photos & Images   |                      | The organisation is a member or signatory of one or more  |                         | You are asked to submit your application form removingindicators of your gender, age, and other protectedcharacteristics (or you are informed your CV will be"blinded") |  |  |
| Photos on the website appear to show diverse employees  |                      | diversity related organisations, e.g. The Tech Talent Charter The organisation has won diversity and inclusion award(s) | characte                |   |  |  |
| Perks & Benefits Fo   |                      | Formal Reports  |                         | The Interview   |  |  |
| Perks and facilities appear to be designed to for a broad spectrum of people                  |                      | The Gender Pay Gap report is transparent about reasons, actions taken, and commitment to close the gap                  | The inter               | rviews are with a diverse group of people   |  |  |
| The benefits available appear to recognise and cater for diverse needs                        |                      | The Annual Report has a clear and informative section aboutDiversity, Equity and Inclusion                          |                         | The interviewers give good answers to your questions about  |  |  |
| Leadership  |                      | Social Media  | -                       | the organisation's diversity and inclusion commitment and programme   |  |  |
| The leadership team is diverse  |                      | Balance of posts includes: business, people focused, social impact  | how thwellbein      | e organisation has been supporting employees'g  |  |  |
| Messages shared by the leadership team demonstratethey value diversity and inclusion      |                      | A diverse set of people are featured in thought leadership  |                         | lity and remote working   |  |  |
| Employee Reviews  |                      | and industry topics   |                         | hey hope the successful candidate will bring to the nd you can see it being you!  |  |  |
| Employees and former employees speak positively about culture for inclusion                   |                      |   |                         |   |  |  |
| Online reviews, e.g. Glassdoor, indicate employees  |                      |   | Grand                   | Total   |  |  |